

Additional Joint Base Charleston AFB & Community Resources

315th AW Airman and Family Readiness

If you do not have access to an on-base child care provider, you may be eligible to participate in this program. This is a fee assisted (not free) program; available during deployment and up to 60 days following a deployment
<http://www.childcareaware.org/>

Operation Love Reunited

An organization of professional photographers offering free patriotic themed photo sessions to families of deployed service members. Each family qualifies for pre-deployment session, photos of the family at home sent to the deployed member or a reunion session.

www.oplove.org

Operation Palmetto Employment

Training, Connecting and Supporting South Carolina's military job seekers and civilian employers.
803-299-1713
www.operationpalmettoemployment.sc.gov

Our Military Kids

Program offers grants for children in sports, fine arts and other programs to help cope with the challenges while their parent is absent.

<http://www.ourmilitarykids.org/>

4-H Military Program

Programs for youth ages 5-18 from any branch of service.

<http://4-hmilitarypartnerships.org/>

Key Spouse

Key Spouses establish and maintain contact with deployed member's families and provide peer-to-peer support during separations. Contact Airman & Family Readiness to learn more about the program or about becoming part of the Key Spouse Team!

Service Member & Family Care (SFMC)

Multitude of Free Services:
Employment Services
Family Programs
Health & Wellness
Psychological Services
Survivor Services
Veteran Advisors
www.scguard.com/smfc
1-800-299-4200

Want to Talk? We're here to Listen.

Airman & Family Readiness: 843-963-5818

Psychological Health Services: 843-963-3559

Spouse Education and Career Opportunities (SECO)

The Department of Defense Spouse Education and Career Opportunities program provides expert education and career guidance to military spouses worldwide.